“On Listening To The Music You Are Carried Places And Your Feet Jiggles To The Beat, And Conjures Up Pictures Of Tranquil Streams And Desert Oasis”

“Ninindi's CD carries a rich and wide variety of music. It seems to have as many aspects as water does, and expresses them all through voice, music, lyrics, and the feel it gives you when listening.

Rain falling, rivers flowing swiftly and slowly. Storms, drizzles, the importance of water to our planet and us. The sacredness of water.

The different tracks range from peaceful listening, to dancing, to lullaby and ones with a lively beat.

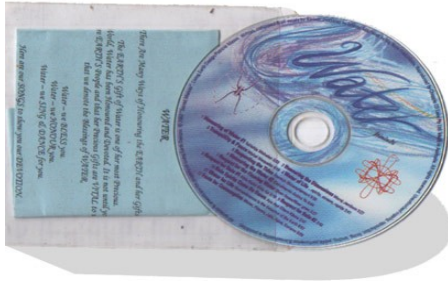

All kinds of music joined by a key theme: water.

On listening to the music you are carried places and your feet jiggles to the beat, and conjures up pictures of tranquil streams and desert oasis”

"Sacred". The ultimate tool in what I call 'energetic regeneration'. Based on the ultimate feelings of faith and purity of mind. It is a powerful tool to utterly transform your life. Many spiritual 'gurus' such as James Twyman, Hawaian Shaman Dr Len (famous for his powerful healing of mentally ill criminal patients, and co-author "No Limits" with Dr Joe Vitale), use forms of such a tool to co-create everyday...

"Sacred" carries the vibration of eternal love and healing for everyone to use. It has the qualities that Shaman Dr Len used to heal the mentally ill criminal patients,.. it has the qualities that James Twyman used to bend spoons with his Mind & Being...

"Sacred" the song will be yours when you order the "Water" Album.
